

Position Description

Position Title: Manager of Human Resources
Department: Administration
Classification: ML2
Last Updated: April 2025

---

Summary

The Manager of Human Resources oversees all HR and Safety activities, and advises, guides, and supports all levels of management and employees on addressing a broad and diverse range of HR issues spanning unionized and non-unionized staff. This position leads the development, implementation, and management of City-wide HR projects, initiatives, and policies.

Key Duties & Accountabilities

- Manages HR department staff by providing direction and oversight including hiring, evaluation, performance management, and training, ensuring the provision of excellent business support
- Develops, implements, and leads HR activities and initiatives related to:
  - Administration and policy development
  - Compensation, benefits, payroll and leave management
  - Health, wellness, and occupational safety
  - Labour relations, legislation, collective agreement, and policy interpretation
  - Learning and development
  - Performance management and employee relations
  - Strategic HR and workforce planning
- Ensures the consistent application of HR policies, procedures, and programs
- Leads all labour relations activities, including developing and maintaining positive relationships with employee and union groups ADMIN - Manager of Human Resources JD 2025
- Leads the City's Occupational Health and Safety Program, developing, implementing, and maintain all corporate Safety initiatives
- Provides HR leadership in the development of business strategies and brings a human resources perspective to decision-making
- Collaborates with managers to drive change leadership, including planning, implementing, and sustaining change within departments while ensuring alignment across the City
- Develops HR strategies and solutions to meet corporate and Council strategic goals
- Presents reports and makes recommendations to Council on HR-related matters as required
- Maintains personnel records in a strictly confidential manner
- May be requested to work outside office hours, including in support of local emergencies
- Performs other related duties as required

Qualifications

- Post-secondary degree in Human Resources, Business Administration or related field and seven (7) years' experience in a human resources position, preferably in a public sector unionized environment (or an equivalent combination)
- Eligible for certification as a Chartered Professional in Human Resources (CPHR)

- Education and/or certification in Change Management practices is an asset
- Considerable knowledge of recruitment, compensation and benefits administration, employee and labour relations, job evaluation, performance and attendance management, conflict resolution, workforce planning, collective agreement interpretation, human resources related legislation (e.g. Employment Standards Act, Workers Compensation Act, Human Rights Code, etc.)
- Knowledge of and experience with planning, developing, and implementing HR-related projects and initiatives
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills with the ability to develop comprehensive and strategic solutions to complex cases
- Strong interpersonal skills with knowledge and experience in consulting and facilitation, with the ability to assess leadership team capabilities and influence leaders to align with strategic HR goals
- Strong understanding of, and experience with, occupational health and safety best practices
- Ability to build and maintain positive employee relations and credibility within all levels of the organization
- Ability to deal tactfully and effectively with internal and external contacts and communicate effectively both orally and in writing
- Strong technical abilities and proficiency in a variety of computer systems and software applications, including Microsoft Office
- A commitment to excellent customer service, continuous improvement, and life-long learning
- A team player with a strong work ethic
- A sense of humour, with the ability to take your work seriously but not yourself